Date: 18th August 2017

The 4th Foundation Day memorial lecture of Bahona College was organised by the Bahona College Teachers' Unit on 18th August 2017 at the college auditorium. The lecture on Neo-liberal Feudalism and the crisis of Regional Nationalities was delivered by Dr. Akhil Ranjan Dutta, Professor of Political Science at Gauhati University. Dr Jyogeswar Bora former teacher of Bahona College and ex-principal of C.K.B College graced the occasion as the guest of honour. Dr P. K. Datta, Principal of the college welcomed all to the august gathering.

The program was started with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp by the guest. Ajit Kumar Borah, Secretary of the Teachers Unit anchored the programme with an introduction of the speaker. In his speech delivered with fascinating oratory skills Dr. Dutta explain the entire trajectory of a neo-liberal did you listen death got rooted with the globalisation of the world economy and the increasing identity crisis of the regional nationalities and ethnic communities. He concluded his speech with a ray of optimism that in the near future the Evil of neoliberal dualism will be countered effectively.

In the programme 310 students, teachers, office staff and invited guest participated. Mr Pankaj Bora, Assistant Professor of Political science offered a vote of thanks to all who contributed to making the event a successful one.
