NSS, Bahona College in collaboration with Assam Development Initiative (ADI) organized an interaction programme on Youth for Value Based Education. Principal of Bahona College chaired the programme where Architect of Assam Development Initiative (ADI) Hiren Sarma, VbE Project Director Archana Borthakur, VbE Guwahati Coordinator Palash Kalita and VbE Jorhat Coordinator Pronab Puzari were present.

Principal of Bahona College, Dr. P. K. Dutta welcomed the guest and the students and teachers of the college to the interaction programme. He said that the college is happy to have the guest present in the college. He said that in this present social environment, it is important to work and Value based Education and thanked NSS Bahona College for taking the initiative for organizing an interaction programme on the said theme. Hiren Sarma said that he and the few like minded persons founded Assam Development Initiative (ADI) to work on Value based Education. Archana Borthakur said that they are working on Value based Education and want to adopt few schools in Bahona area for promoting Value based Education. She also invited students of Bahona College to contribute as volunteers for the initiative.

VbE Guwahati Coordinator Palash Kalita stated the project plan they prepared for Guwahati and said that they will prepare a plan for Jorhat also. VbE Jorhat Coordinator Pronab Puzari said that they will organize a training programme soon in Jorhat and requested the students of Bahona College to join them. Dr. Shantana Saikia appreciated the initiative and said that students of the English department will also collaborate with ADI.

Students of Bahona College inquired about their responsibility on the initiative and Archana Borthakur said that they have to teach and interact with school level students for Value based Education. Students also wanted to know how they will be benefited. Hiren Sarma said that as ADI has received financial support from Oil India Limited, they will give financial incentives to the volunteers. He also said that they will get a certificate of internship for their service. Hiren Sarma requested interested students to inform Dr. Pankaj Bora or Pronab Puzari. Dr. Pankaj Bora ended the programme with a Vote of thanks.
