Bahona College, on 10th January 2017, organized a training programme on Digital Transaction. The objective of the programme was to train the students, teaching and non teaching staff of the college about digital transaction systems. The training programme was inaugurated by Dr. O. S. Ahmed, Vice Principal of Bahona College. Devojyoti Borah, a renown IT Expert, was the Resource Person of the training programme. Total 6 teachers, 4 non teaching staff and 33 students (total 43 participants) attended the training programme.

In the training programme, Devojyoti Borah explained different modes of Digital transactions. He said that Net Banking, Debit Card, Credit Card, Wallet etc are the most popular modes of Digital transactions. Devojyoti Borah also requested everyone to frequently change their passwords, login credentials to protect themselves from online fishing. He also suggested to use a second account with limited balance for online transactions.

IQAC Coordinator Dr. Rofique Ahmed suggested everyone to be alert while using digital mode of transaction. He suggested everyone not to share OTP and other bank details with unknown persons. He also said that Digital transactions will be a popular mode of transaction in near future and therefore all should gear up for the same. Pankaj Bora, NSS programme officer said that he has been using Digital Transactions for payment of insurance bills, online purchase, shopping at shopping malls and it is very easy and anyone can easily learn the same.

The students, teaching and non teaching staff asked a few questions related to digital transactions and how safe it is. They also wanted to know how to place grievances related to digital transactions. Students wanted to know whether they can use their student account ATM card for digital transactions. Devojyoti Bora answered each and every question of the participants. At the end Alock Kr. Dutta offered his Vote
