Introduction:

In a concerted effort to foster inclusivity and accessibility in academic and research environments, we are delighted to announce a National Level Weeklong Workshop on the theme “Conducting Research in a PwD-Friendly Environment” from 19th August to 27th August 2024. This workshop aims to equip students, researchers, and college and university teachers with the necessary skills and knowledge to create and maintain inclusive research spaces for Persons with Disabilities (PwDs).

Objectives:

- To raise awareness about the importance of PwD-friendly research environments.
- To impart essential communication skills for interacting with PwDs.
- To enhance understanding of non-verbal communication cues.
- To provide knowledge about support systems and legal provisions for PwDs.
- To introduce and offer hands-on experience with assistive technologies.
- To foster an inclusive research culture through collaboration and ongoing learning.

Target Audience:

- Students
- Researchers
- College and University Teachers

Workshop Schedule:

The workshop will be conducted online via Google Meet from 2.30 to 4.00 pm daily, with additional self-paced learning activities amounting to 1900 minutes over the course of the workshop.

Tentative Sessions:

Session 1: 19th August: Introduction to PwDs in Research

Session 2: 20th August: Communication Essentials

Session 3: 21st August: Understanding Non-Verbal Cues

Session 4: 22nd August: Support Systems & Official Provisions

Session 5: 24th August: Assistive Technologies for Communication

Session 6: 27th August: Building an Inclusive Research Culture
