

Course Outcomes

Department of Assamese

- C1 : This paper has the objective of enlightening the students regarding the progress of Assamese literature since ancient to modern times, as a part of history of literature.
- C2 : This paper has the objective of enlightening the students regarding the progress of modern Assamese literature since its establishment to the contemporary times, as a part of history of literature.
- C3 : This paper is prepared with the objective of imparting knowledge regarding the history of discussions about eastern and western languages, and various aspects of language and linguistics.
- C4 : This paper is prepared with the objective of giving a preliminary knowledge regarding Indian and Western linguistic traditions.
- C5 : This paper is prepared with the objective of training students with various methodologies of literacy criticisms as well as different aspects of literature.
- C6 : This paper is prepared with the objective of giving an in-depth idea regarding Assamese poetry since ancient to modern times.
- C7 : This paper is prepared with the objective of highlighting about culture in general.
- C8 : This paper will highlight topics in contemporary literature as well as relevance and methods of comparative literature, in terms of both Indian literature and Assamese literature.
- C9 : The paper is prepared in order to highlight the importance of grammar of Sanskrit, Pali and Prakrit languages as well as the development of Aryan languages.
- C10 : This paper is prepared to highlight the birth and development of Assamese prose with special reference to selected examples of prose of Bhattadev to contemporary times.
- C11 : This paper is prepared to highlight to history of Assamese drama till contemporary dramas.
- C12 : This paper is prepared to highlight phonological and morphological system of Assamese language.
- C13 : This paper is prepared to study modern creative literature is Assamese language.
- C14 : This paper highlights the process of of the development of language and scripts.
- GI 1 : This paper is presented to highlight the development of Tourism industry based on the natural environment and resources of Assam.

GE 2 : This paper is prepared to get an idea about teaching of Assamese literature as well as how to impart the knowledge regarding various aspects of literature to students.

GE 3: This paper is prepared to acquire communication skills in Assamese language while reading and writing, and imparting these skills to students.

GE 4 : This paper is prepared to introduce the new topic of Sociology in literature among students.

AECC: This paper is prepared for Skill Enhancement Programme in Assamese literature.